ONE VOICE ■ ■ ■ ■

Monologues funded by the TS Eliot Estate

Sunday 11 March, 7pm
Tickets £10, £15

One Hand Tied Behind Us takes place just after International Women's Day and marks 100 years since the 1918 Representation of the People Act gave the first women in Britain the right to vote. Curated by Maxine Peake, this special one-off performance of monologues will explore key moments in the history of women's rights in the UK, and look forward to the future of the fight for equality.

Writers will include Peake, with further writers and casting to be announced.
