One Voice | ONE HAND TIED BEHIND US

■ ■ ■ ■

Sunday 11 March 2018, 7pm
Auditorium, tickets: £20

One Hand Tied Behind Us takes place just after International Women's Day and marks 100 years since the 1918 Representation of the People Act gave the first women in Britain the right to vote. Curated by Maxine Peake, this special one-off performance of monologues will explore key moments in the history of women's rights in the UK, and look forward to the future of the fight for equality.

Writers include Bola Agbaje, Maxine Peake, Kit de Waal and Jeanette Winterson, with further writers and casting to be announced.
