AT THE

OLD VIC

‘Thankfully this bastion of London theatre is still here, but will continue to need support to maintain its crucial youth programme and remain one of the most creative, inclusive, prestigious and beautiful theatres in London’ Lesley Manville

‘The decision of becoming a Patron at The Old Vic was made in 2011, after I read about the community projects The Old Vic started to provide to the more disadvantaged people in the area. I like everything about The Old Vic and my Membership. All productions are fantastic and the related events always fun, informative, and inspirational. The Old Vic staff are professional, warm, inclusive, and they go the extra mile to truly make us feel a part of The Old Vic family’ Ines Varela Silva — Patron

ENTERTAIN SOMETHING NEW

The Old Vic is London’s independent not-for-profit theatre, a world leader in creativity and entertainment.

Today, Artistic Director Matthew Warchus is building on 200 years of creative adventure. The Old Vic is mercurial: it can transform into a theatre in the round, a space for live music and comedy, has played host to opera, dance, cinema, music hall, classical dramas, variety, big spectacles and novelty acts. It was the original home of the English National Opera, the Sadler’s Wells dance company and the National Theatre. It’s also been a tavern, a college, a coffee house, a lecture hall and a meeting place.

All of this is now in the bones of the building and is as important a part of its open-armed, inclusive, welcoming personality as its grand historic décor and the iconic performances and famous productions it has housed. We aim to be a surprising, unpredictable, ground-breaking, rule-breaking, independent beacon of accessible, uplifting and unintimidating art.

We hold the belief that theatre needs to be supported, shared and upheld for as many people as possible. Our 1,000 seats are yours from £10 a ticket. Our productions are diverse, adventurous, new, epic, exciting. Our education and talent programmes allow students to explore and artists of tomorrow to create. Our building is open and alive day and night. Our theatre is yours.

So, whether you’re looking for a comedy or new musical, a dramatic work or dance performance, a £10 preview, a late-night pint or a show you can watch together as a family, there is always something new to entertain at The Old Vic.
