VOICES OFF | Marina Litvinenko and Luke Harding In Conversation

■ ■ ■ ■ ■

Tuesday 10 September, 5pm
Tickets: £6

Join Marina Litvinenko and Luke Harding for a discussion of the real-life events the play is based on, their political legacy on the world stage, and what it's like seeing the story translated into drama. Luke Harding is a British journalist and a foreign correspondent for The Guardian. His book A Very Expensive Poison: The Definitive Story of the Murder of Litvinenko was published in 2016. Marina Litvinenko is the widow of Russian spy Alexander Litvinenko. In 2007, she co-wrote Death of a Dissident: The Poisoning of Alexander Litvinenko and the Return of the KGB with Alexander Goldfarb.

Tickets for the performance that evening are still available. If you are interested, please do get in touch on oldvicclub@oldvictheatre.com or 020 7981 0982.
